Class of 2001

Farewell From Mr. K

My life moves in cycles of four year clusters. In September of 1997, your class was placed under my direction. After fumbling through that awkward year of ascertaining where you fit into a school, you soon thought of yourselves not as upperclassmen, but at least no longer freshman. You now entered the cool years. In one short year, your life took on a new direction. Weekends became a new experience as curfews were extended. Your thoughts turned to "I'll be getting my license soon." This driver's license thing meant more freedom. You never realized it meant more responsibility. You took the MCAS exam and counted your lucky stars each night knowing it could not keep you from graduating. Finally, you made it to your Junior year. In September, you heard my opening speech for the third consecutive year. Doesn't that guy ever think we listen to him? I know school counts for something. It just means more to him than to us. You staked out the Junior corner. The underclass girls thought it was so cool for you guys to say, Hi. Your own classmates stood at a distance and watched you make fools of yourselves. The Prom was great. Basketball was exciting. Oh no, Mr. K just told us to begin thinking about college. Bad enough my parents keep saying it. Now he's on our case.

Senior year. I'm a big kid now! We can act maturely and reason with our teachers. We have developed a trust between us and the grayhairs, but we can't lie. We need their recommendations for college. I know, "I'll just tell little lies." I need my book or game jersey. I think I left my automatic shutoff curling iron on. My parents want me to look after my dog. Those lies can't get us into too much trouble. Please, Mr. K, not Saturday Suspension! Before you know it, I'll be writing my graduation speech proclaiming "this is the best class I ever had." Yeah, right! You made me the focus of your jokes, but I know at least I was in your thoughts. Now you're in mine, but guess what? It's time to begin a new cluster of time. Bring on the Class of 2005. That's right, "bring it on." Good luck to each and everyone of you.

Walter McClennen Principal

To The Class of 2001:

I take this opportunity to thank you all for helping to make Marlborough High the best that it can be. You may not fully realize it, but throughout the country, the American citizenry is demanding that schools be something far better than they have been in the past. When you move on to have children of your own, you will understand why more is being demanded of our public schools: you will want the very best for those children. As principal, I have had the pleasure of seeing this school go through a renewal and transformation that is quite extraordinary. This could not happen without your good efforts. You have helped us start to live and breathe some of the lofty expectations set forth in our statement of purpose. Teachers and administrators alone cannot bring a school to that place of learning, respect and positive attitudes that it should be. It can only happen with student participation, cooperation and leadership. That is what you have brought to this school during your time here. You are truly a great group of people. I wish you well. I ask that you take some of the good that you have gave and received at MHS out into the real world. You all have more to offer than you know! I wish you have a good and full life.

Walter McClennen, Principal

Kelly Quinn President-Class 2001

To my classmates,

When I was asked to write this letter, I was not quite sure what to say. I thought about it for awhile, then compiled my own thoughts with some advice that I feel applies from the song, "Everybody's Free" by Baz Luhrmann, so here it is...

Throughout the past years each of us had grown tremendously. Individually we have grown apart from certain people, but grown together with others. This year I have seen us come together as a class. As our years at Marlboro High School come to an end, we will all head off to our own different paths. There is so much possibility that lies before us, but do not worry about the future. "Don't feel guilty if you don't know what to do with your life. Whatever you do don't congratulate yourself too much or berate yourself either. Sometimes you're ahead, sometimes you're behind. The race is long and in the end it is only with yourself."

The past five years with one another have molded us into who we are and we will never forget that. Now we will leave each other and further our experiences. I wish the best of luck to all the members of the class of 2001. I hope to see you all in 2006 at our 5 year reunion.

Best Wishes,
Kelly Quinn

Farewell

Mr. Clancy

Mr. Clancy began his teaching career at Romfield school in Harvard, MA in 1961.

In 1965 he began teaching biology at the old high school which is presently the middle school. Mr. Clancy's tenure as assistant principal began in 1977 here at Marlborough High School. During the early years Mr. Clancy formed a band with Mr. McCaffrey and others. They called themselves the "Ha Ha Ha". It was performances by them that helped the students realize how fun teachers could really be.

What will be missed most by Mr. Clancy are the kids. "Kids keep us young" he quotes.

He wants this year's senior class and the many before to remember one thing about him. He was a person who cared about the kids and cared about the school. He will be missed by all here at Marlborough High School. Good Luck Mr. Clancy and thanks for everything.

Below: Mr. Clancy and Mrs. Carlson make a great couple at the prom.

Junior Prom 2000

After the long anticipation and preparation the Juniors finally had the night that they had been waiting for since they arrived at MHS...Prom Night!! On May 12, 2000 the Class of 2001 arrived at the Wyndham Hotel in Westborough looking their best. After taking pictures and having dinner in the ballroom that was decorated with the theme "In The Moonlight Rose Garden"...we hit the dance floor!! Later that night Mr. K made us all take a break and sit down while he announced the prom King, Queen, and their court. The court was made up of Sean McDonnell, Heather Cobb, Tom Coiner, Lindsey Greulich, Pete Rezac, Lili Nguyen, Dave Lachapelle, and Mary Ellen Klein. Then Mr. K announced that the 2000 Prom King was Brian Kiley and that his queen was his best friend, and date, Erin Buckley. The juniors finished the night off with more fun-filled dancing which even included getting some of the teachers on the dance floor!! It was a night to remember.

Above: Madame and her main men, Jim Wood and Sterling Neblett are having a great time at the prom.

Senior Semi-Formal

Right: The Senior Boys pose for a memory of the great night.

Below: Nicole Sharon and Kristen Sharp dance the night away.

class of 2001

The Senior Semi Formal began the first gathering the Class of 2001 had as seniors. The Hawain Atmosphere gave up a chance to kick back and enjoy a tropical environment. The DJ provided the music and we provided the moves! By the end of the night, we all realized that our senior year together would be one of the most memorable years of our life!

GRIFFIN BRYANT

Griffin,

You've added so much joy to our lives and made us so proud: bouncing on the sofa as a toddler to make us laugh, working on your web sites, and excelling in school.

We wish you the best of everything in the future!

All our love,

Mom, Dad, and Tiffany

TONY LOPEZ

Tony,

Congratulations on this milestone you've accomplished. We love you and are very proud of you. Never stop believing and may all your wishes and dreams become reality.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Tom and Kailey

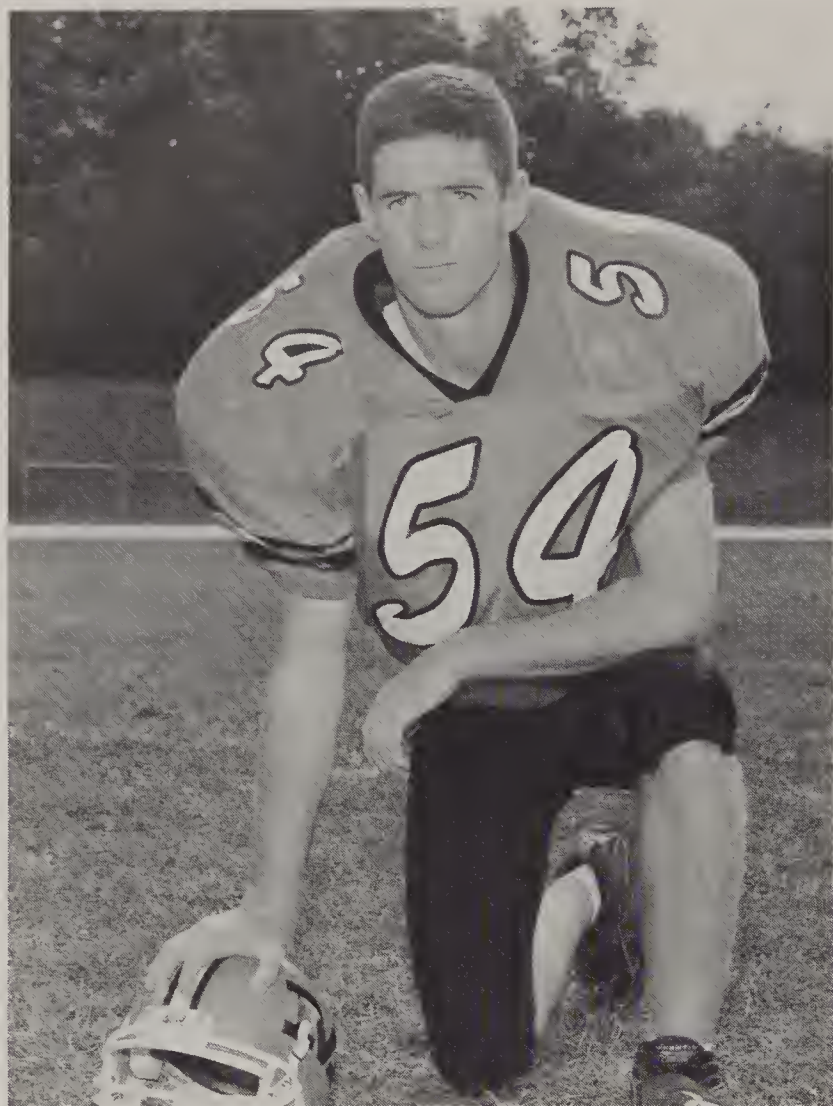

NICOLE GAGAS

Nikki,
Congratulations. May all your hopes and dreams come true.
We are all so proud of you.

ERIN BUCKLEY

"Princess",

You've been our joy and inspiration, we wish for you a life filled with love, health, happiness, success, and laughter. Live your life with this poem within you.

There is a voice inside of you that whispers all day long, "I feel that this is right for me, I know that this is wrong." No teacher, preacher, parent, friend or wise man can decide what's right for you-just listen to the voice that speaks inside.

*Love always,

JACQUELINE O'NEILL

Jackie,

A true princess is born not made. You were born a princess and have brought into our lives all your special qualities- your kindness, sensitivity, enthusiasm, and most of all your love. You touch the lives of all those you meet. As parents we could not ask more from a child, you are indeed perfect.

Believe in yourself, do what you know to be right and your good fortune is assured. Like the fairy tale says "...and the princess lived happily ever after".

Love,

Dad, Mom, Sean and Jillian

MATTHEW DiRIENZO

Matthew,

ANTHONY SULLIVAN

*There's something special about your first born boy,
He fills your heart with nothing but joy.
But close your eyes for a second or two,
And your asking yourself "now what do I do?"
Our little boy is now all grown,
We can't help but let out a moan.
From baby boy and now man,
It's time to go off and be the best you can.
From grammar, to junior, then off to high school,
We hope you are finishing with all the right tools.
Graduation is a memory that will be sure to last,
It is something that becomes part of your past.
Now it's time to start anew,
The world is wide open; it's quite a view.
So as you graduate here today,
Know that our Love is with you all of the way.
With love,
